

Education Learning Activities

LESSON 1 - UNDERSTANDING YOUR PERSONALITY

Part 1 - Influencing Others

What are your three biggest struggles with your coworkers and students and how are they limiting your success in the school system?

List the names of the top 5 people who you interact with most, and next to their names write their ages.

How might you work differently if you could access all of the knowledge and experience that has accumulated during that time.

Education Learning Activities

LESSON 1 - UNDERSTANDING YOUR PERSONALITY

Part 2 - The 3 Rules of Leadership

On a scale of 1-5, how comfortable are you with taking relational risks with other faculty members?

1 2 3 4 5

Within the classroom?

1 2 3 4 5

Pick a relationship with a coworker that needs to improve. Decide if you're willing to follow the three rules of leadership to make a better connection with this individual.

- 1) Are you willing to get out of your comfort zone to make a better connection with this individual?

- 2) Are you willing to take risks to make a better connection with this individual?

- 3) Are you willing to reach out unconditionally to this individual?

Education Learning Activities

LESSON 1 - UNDERSTANDING YOUR PERSONALITY

Part 3 - Take Control of Your Personality

What personality traits have you inherited?

What traits or behaviors have you inherited over time?

How do these traits affect your relationships

Education Learning Activities

LESSON 1 - UNDERSTANDING YOUR PERSONALITY

Take the Test

Write down your scores on the test and circle your primary and secondary personalities.

Lion

Turtle

Monkey

Camel

What did the test reveal about you? Any surprises?

Education Learning Activities

LESSON 1 - UNDERSTANDING YOUR PERSONALITY

Part 5 - 2 Myths that Destroy Relationships, Myth 1

What is your biggest challenge in relating to other faculty members who view the world differently than you?

What is your biggest challenge in relating to students who view the world differently than you?

Who do you work with whose different perspective causes relational challenges for you?

How do you think this affects the learning and success of students in your classroom with different personalities?

Education Learning Activities

LESSON 1 - UNDERSTANDING YOUR PERSONALITY

Part 6 - 2 Myths that Destroy Relationships, Myth 2

How do you think your coworkers view you? Is it an accurate depiction?

How do you think your students view you? Is it an accurate depiction?

How do you think your students view you? Is it an accurate depiction?

With which personality type is it most difficult for you to connect?

In Part 2, you identified someone with whom you have relational challenges due to differing perspectives and personalities. What specific steps can you take to connect with those who are different from you?